AN HONEST FACT

Is hard to combat, and none comes home with greater force than the fact that there is nothing in the range of human beverages about which there is so little known by the average man as whiskey. There is not a house in the country that makes a better and purer brand than that of M. Shaughnessy & Co., of 402 North Main Street, this city. In their famous "Club House" brand of Bourbon whiskey, the public has a guarantee of a brand that the medical profession has stamped with a high approval, and recommended with confidence to patients and those requiring nourishment. In these days of deteriorated liquors, all cry out for praise, but only the good survives.

A REMARKABLE HIT.

Under the above heading, the St. Louis Post-Dispatch says: Mr. Charles Kunkel's "Southern Jollification" plantation scene, which P. S. Gilmore presented to the public during the past three and a-half weeks, sprang into public favor at once, and its performance nightly entranced all. No sooner did Gilmore strike up this piece but the heads and feet of young and old were set in motion, and smiles of happiness beamed from joyous faces. Gilmore pronounces it the biggest hit he has made in ten years with any piece. It was played last night the closing day of the Exposition, for the twenty-second time—a remarkable showing. Mr. Kunkel's piano solo of "Southern Jollification" is very effective, while not at all difficult, and promises to find its way into every household having a piano.

This medicine, being an alterative, and working constitutionally, through the blood, its effects may not be immediately apparent in all cases, but the gain in health and strength, through its persistent use, is real and lasting. It reaches every drop of blood in the body.

"I have none but good words to speak regarding Ayer's Sarsaparilla. All during the winter I was languid, tired, and without any appetite, until I commenced the use of this remedy. I took three bottles. Its effects have been revivifying, and I feel as if I had entered a new life. I did not think it was in the power of medicine to produce such a wonderful change, as has Ayer's Sarsaparilla in my case."—Mrs. C. Johnson, 310 Hicks st., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and also other preparations of a like nature, for the purposes of a blood-purifier, and, while receiving no good, but often positive harm, from others, I have always derived benefit from Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and have no hesitation in recommending it to any one in want of a reliable blood-purifier."—Mrs. M. "I was a great sufferer from a low condition of the blood and general debility, before coming, finally, so reduced that I was unfit for work. Nothing that I did for the complaint helped me so much as Ayer's Sarsaparilla, a few bottles of which restored me to health and strength. I take every opportunity to recommend this medicine in similar cases."—C. Evick, 14 E. Main st., Chillicothe, Ohio.

"Ayer's Sarsaparilla is one of the very few proprietary medicines that I can honestly recommend. I have seen it used in this place, in a number of cases, with very satisfactory results, and I have used it in my own family, for salt-rheum, with abundant success. I consider it to be the leading blood-purifier of the day."—Charles C. Davis, Nashua, N. H.

EDUARD STRAUSS.

Eduard Strauss, leader of the celebrated Vienna Strauss orchestra, which was just heard here, is the youngest son of Johann Strauss. His father organized the Strauss orchestra in Vienna in 1823, and is the composer who, out of the old German dance in six steps, created the modern waltz, and became famous throughout Europe as the first leader of the Strauss orchestra. He had two other sons, Johann and Josef. The elder son, Johann, wrote that favorite of waltzes—"The Beautiful Blue Danube;" 23 years ago he gave up conducting for music writing. For 16 years the second son was musical conductor. He died in 1870.

The renowned Eduard made his first appearance as conductor of the Strauss orchestra in 1863, and from that year until 1870, when Josef died, alternated the duties of the leadership with him.

In 1871, Eduard Strauss was made music director of the court balls of the emperor and king of Austria, and he is the third Strauss that has been honored in this manner. Besides this, he is commander, officer and knight of 10 orders of the different sovereigns of Europe, as well as being personally decorated by them.

He and his band have made repeated tours to Dresden, Leipzig, Breslau, Berlin, Hamburg, Frankfurt etc. He brought his orchestra to the "Inventions Exhibition," (1885) when the daily concerts created a furore in London. Except during tours, he still appears regularly in Vienna on fixed days at the Volksgarten, and in the winter in the large hall of the Musikverein, where his programmes are always attractive. Up to this time, he has composed over 200 pieces of dance music, and its unrivalled excellence is acknowledged by Richard Wagner, by Meyerbeer, and by other famous composers. At the same time, his performance of more serious music is also exceedingly fine. Eduard Strauss married in 1863.

From the pen of Strauss the father, and his three sons, there have been put out over 1,300 works, which are probably played and danced by more delighted people than the similar compositions of all the other composers on earth. Their waltzes are the classics of the dance, and, as such, are recognized and adopted by the foremost leaders of the world.

Americans have never heard before waltzes, polkas and mazurkas played with the brilliancy, dash, breadth and expression that are given to them by the Strauss orchestra.

President and Mrs. Harrison and Vice-President and Mrs. Morton attended the Strauss concerts given in Washington, and enthusiastically applauded every number on the programme.

Strauss' reception in this city was one befitting the great waltz king. The three concerts were thronged with enthusiastic audiences, which is only a repetition of his conquests in every city he has visited.

THE CHORAL SYMPHONY SOCIETY.

The first concert of the season to be given by this society, will take place on the 18th inst., at Exposition Music Hall. Rheinberger's "Christophorus," with Dr. B. Merrill Hopkinson, of Baltimore, as Christopher, will be presented. He has established a high reputation East, and is much sought after for concert and oratorio. Mrs. Corinne Moore-Lawson, of Cincinnati, Miss Ullrich McDearmon, alto of the Union Methodist Church, and Mr. Otto Hein, the well-known tenor, will also participate. The Cantata being short, a miscellaneous programme will precede it, embracing "Egmont Overture"—Beethoven, an aria by Mrs. Lawson, Chorus of Hours from "Paradise and the Peri"—Schumann, and Quartette from "Fidelio"—Beethoven.

Dr. Adam Flickinger, of 1113 Pine Street, is recognized as one of the best dentists in the West.

DETROIT PHILHARMONIC CLUB.

Under the management of J. E. Ashcroft, the Detroit Philharmonic Club will give two concerts at Memorial Hall, on the 6th and 7th instant. Mme. Geneva Johnston-Bishop, of Chicago, has been engaged as soloist. Messrs. M. I. Epstein and E. R. Kroeger will be accompanists. The reputation of the Detroit Philharmonic Club extends over the United States, and the public will be delighted with their recitals.

THEY ENJOYED IT.

A party of ladies, accompanied by a gentleman, were enjoying an afternoon concert at the Exposition, seated just back of Mr. Charles Kunkel and Mr. Maddern, director of the orchestra at the Grand Opera House. The identity of the famous Gilmore band on the stage seemed to be lost to the fair ones, for the question had been asked—"Whose band is that?" When the third number on the programme was reached, the great band struck out into a regular swinging Ethiopian melody. It caught the fancy of the party at once, and glances of pleasure with questions of "what's that?" were exchanged. Finally, when the imitation of the banjo solos and hoe-down were reached, the escort could stand it no longer, and stooping over he addressed Mr. Kunkel with "Pardon me, but what beautiful piece is that the band is playing?" With becoming modesty, Mr. Kunkel answered that it was called "Southern Jollification"—a plantation scene, but when he turned away there was a merry twinkle in his eye, for he knew his "Southern Jollification" was a success, and the interested party never suspected that the person he addressed was the author himself of the piece that had enchanted the entire party.

Guido Parisi will be the leading violinist of the St. Louis Choral and Symphony Societies, the coming season.

Miss Anna Hedges, of 2931 Dayton Street, receives pupils in piano instruction. She is an able and careful teacher.

Schoen's Orchestra opened the season in a fine programme for the Veiled Prophets ball given at the Exposition Music Hall.

Geo. H. Hutchinson, of 3136 Chestnut, knows a good edition of music at sight. He prefers Kunkel's Royal Edition to all others.

Mrs. Steinmeyer-Rockel has been engaged for the Sunday service of the Synagogue, 17th and Pine Street. A. I. Epstein is organist.

August Boette, a pupil of Louis Ritter of 1819 Hickory, played Walter's Preisleid for violin at the South St. Louis Turner Hall.

George Jarvis, former director of St. Peter's Episcopal Church, went from London to India to reside, where he has an interest in a plantation.

J. S. Parker gave an organ recital at St. John's Episcopal church on the 14th ult. Geo. F. Townley, the tenor, was specially engaged for the occasion.

Messrs Charles Kunkel and E. R. Kroeger will shortly be heard in the principal cities in their incomparable programme of duets for two pianos.

J. S. Parker, late of London, has removed from 1116 2nd Carondelet Avenue to 1218 Dollman Street, where he receives pupils in piano, organ, voice and harmony.

The United Hebrew Temple choir, for the coming season, is made up of Miss Bertie Arnold, soprano; Mrs. Wood, alto; H. Bahrenberg, tenor; S. C. Black, basso; R. S. Poppen, organist.

George Heerich, the violinist, is one of the finest teachers in the country, and develops his pupils in a remarkable manner. He is a self-made man, and knows how to benefit others.

Alfred G. Robyn is writing a new opera, the title of which is not yet announced. It will be heard here during the winter. The bass role has been especially written for Mr. Henry Groffman.

Manager Gaiennie of the Exposition was presented with a handsome floral eagle and a nest well lined with little gold eagles, emblematic of his sterling character, at the close of the Exposition.

The Hatton Glee Club is hard at work rehearsing for the season. It was invited to sing at the Exposition, but the severe illness of Mrs. Harry Walker, wife of one of the principals, interfered.

Mrs. A. F. Newland's enterprise in opening a piano studio at 3300 Washington Avenue, has met with very good success. The parents and pupils like the new departure, and acknowledge its great advantages.

Mrs. Mayo Rhodes, a pupil of Robert Nelson of 1722 Olive street, sang at one of the Gilmore concerts with immense success. She displays the excellent method taught by Professor Nelson to the greatest advantage.

Mrs. Lucy B. Ralston, of 3431 Lucas Ave., was busy during fair week entertaining guests. Mrs. Ralston is one of our most progressive and practical teachers. She knows how to make things interesting to her pupils.

Wm. F. Decker of the firm of Decker Bros., the well known Eastern piano makers passed through St. Louis on a business trip. He reports trade in a prosperous state and that the celebrated Decker piano is booming.

Robert Buechel, of 601 Hickory Street, teacher of flute and violin, has composed a beautiful gavotte, called "Unequal Chords," and a very charming polka, entitled "Exquisite Polka." The latter is a flute solo, and is published by Carl Fisher.

The Missouri School for the Blind lost a good and able man in M. A. Gilsinn, who had grown up almost with the institution. Mr. Gilsinn is a thorough gentleman. His successor's work will in time, no doubt, prove what epithets he is entitled to.

The Olympia Quartette sang at one of the Gilmore concerts, and made a great hit. The members are: Chas. A. Metcalf, first tenor; George A. Kissel, first basso; George H. Bahrenburg, second tenor; and Henry F. Niedringhaus, Jr., second basso.

Miss Agnes Gray, the violinist, has returned from New York, where she enjoyed the pleasures of the seashore. She gave a very successful concert, on the 17th ult., at St. Charles, Mo. Miss Gray is engaged at Lindenwood College, where she gives a recital every month.

J. J. Voellmecke, organist of St. John's Catholic Church, 16th and Chestnut, has drilled a very excellent choir, one able to do any church justice. Mr. Voellmecke has patience and perseverance—essentials in an organist. A tenor desiring a good schooling, would do well to join his choir.

I. L. Schoen, the violinist, who returned recently from Europe where he had spent some time in further study, has located at 2724 Lucas Ave. Mr. Schoen has built up an enviable reputation for himself and is known as one of our principal violinists. He is director of Schoen's orchestra.

Mrs. Louie A. Peebles, the well-known soprano, has pupils in vocal instruction from many of the neighboring States. Mrs. Peebles was a pupil of Madame Petipas, the celebrated vocal teacher, now in Paris, and is fully qualified to impart the incomparable method of that most eminent teacher.

Mrs. Gilmore and her beautiful and accomplished daughter, Minnie, visited Mrs. Charles Kunkel, at her elegant home 3828 Pine street. Both Mrs. Gilmore and her daughter broke out into rhapsodies over the handsome staircase and voted it the greatest treat they had received for some time.

Charles C. Bertholdt, of 2733 Washington Ave., teacher of mandolin and banjo, has issued the latest success, "Bon-Bons," a York, for banjo. "Kentucky Gallopode," performed with great success by the Yale banjo club, and "Wedding Bells" arranged for two banjos. Mr. Bertholdt is a very popular and successful teacher.

The Beethoven Mandolin and Guitar Orchestra is now recognized as one of the most prominent organizations in the city. It is composed of Chas. C. Bertholdt, H. B. Mulrennan, Herman Haeger, H. Flottemesch, Wm. Foden, Lowell Putnam and Otto Neuhaus. Its repertoire is extensive and popular, including all the latest novelties.

Mrs. Lena Stelmeyer-Rockel sang at the last Thursday concert of the Exposition. She selected "Scena and Prayer" from "Der Freischutz"—Weber, and scored a triumph that was not equalled by any other singer who participated in the Gilmore concerts. She was accorded a double encore and received warm praise from the entire band. Col. Gilmore was proud of her, and complimented her in very high terms.

An Organ Recital and Concert will be given at Music Hall, on the 11th inst., for the benefit of the Good Samaritan Hospital. The following prominent soloists will participate: Mrs. Louie A. Peebles, Mrs. O. H. Bollman, Messrs. A. G. Robyn, George Heerich, Dierkes, Humphrey, and the Mendelssohn Quintette Club, with Mr. Victor Ehling as pianist.

Messrs. A. G. Robyn and Otto Hein will give a concert at Sedalia on the 5th inst.

CITY NOTES.

E. R. Kroeger recently gave a piano recital at the Kirkwood Seminary. The following was the programme: Kreisleriana No. 2—Schumann; Walter's Prize Song—Wagner-Bendel; Nocturne in F sharp—Chopin; Prelude in A flat—Chopin; Ballade in G minor—Chopin; La Source—Leschetizky; Kammer-Ostrow No. 22—Rubinstein; Serenade Espagnole—Zarembki; Gondellied—Liszt; Fantasia-Polonaise—Kroeger. Mr. Kroeger was assisted by Miss Edwards, soprano, and Miss Hopkins, elocutionist.

Mr. Maddern, the popular leader of the Grand Opera House orchestra, is back among his old friends, after having spent some time in Chicago rendering choice programmes. Mr. Maddern is a musician of great ability, and a gentleman of most pleasing address, eminently fitted for the position he holds. He knows the public taste and is never at fault in having just the proper programme. He is very desirous of giving our home talent a chance, and whatever is meritorious will find in him a champion.

The Western Conservatory of Music, 2645 Olive Street, under the direction of Roscoe Warren Lucy, gave its first musicale of the season on the 18th ult. The programme afforded excellent opportunities to pupils, which were well used. All reflected high credit upon their teachers. Madame Adella Lucy rendered Fantasia Impromptu—Chopin, Rigolotto—Verdi-Liszt, Grand Aria "Ernani"—Verdi, and Star of My Heart—Denza. Miss Agnes Gray played some violin selections, and Mr. Lucy favored the audience with "Man Lives but Once"—Strauss-Tausig.

At St. John's Episcopal Church, cor. Hickory and Dolman Sts., an organ recital was given, 21st ult., by Mr. J. S. Parker, Fellow of the Society of Arts, London, Eng., with Mr. G. F. Townley as solo vocalist. The following programme was rendered: 1. Grand Fantasia—Merkel. 2. (a) Air Varie, "Last Rose of Summer"—Buck; (b) Schummerlied—Schumann. 3. CITY NOTES.

A meeting was held in the Chapter Room of Christ Church Cathedral, on Wednesday evening 22nd ult., for the purpose of organizing a male singing society. Some thirty gentlemen were present, whilst a number of others, who could not attend on account of the necessarily short notice, had already expressed their desire to co-operate in the matter. Mr. Wayman McCreery was called to the chair, and by-laws were adopted. The society will consist of fifty voices, new members being admitted only as vacancies may arise. It will be supported wholly by subscription, and it is proposed to give three concerts each season, with the assistance of such outside talent as may be found necessary. Mr. H. H. Darbey will be musical director. The best male vocalists in the city will be invited to join, and the object of the society being the production of high-class music, we have no doubt that membership will be, in a short time, an honor eagerly sought after. Prof. Marshall S. Snow, of Washington University, has accepted the presidency, and the ballot for vice-presidents resulted in the election of Messrs. Wayman McCreery and A. Reis. The first rehearsals have already taken place.

Do you like a dry champagne? Try Cook's Imperial; its flavor is unrivalled, and it is perfectly pure.

Mr. Frank Taft's organ recital, at the Pilgrim Church, was one of the most interesting and successful recitals given here. Mr. Taft hails from New York, where he takes a high rank as an organist. Mrs. M. E. Latey and Mr. F. H. Swift assisted in the programme. The untiring efforts of C. H. Johnson made this recital a grand treat.

The Eyes of the World will be upon Chicago for the next three years at least, and it will be her own fault if she does not continue to attract attention. As manufacturers of Musical Instruments we have tried to do our part toward making our city known and with such lines as

THE WASHBURN GUITARS, MANDOLINS AND ZITHERS, THE LYON & HEALY HARP,
THE REED-PIPE ORGAN,
THE LYON & HEALY PARLOR ORGAN,
THE "STAR" BANJO

and other first-class instruments we may rest our claims to consideration.

If the reader is interested in musical instruments of any kind, a cordial invitation is extended to visit our warerooms when in Chicago, or write us for information. We publish thirty one (31) separate catalogues describing everything known to music and will be pleased to mail any of them on application.
